Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks for the details. I will leave timing as is and we can discuss what follow up we need post meeting.

I'll now send on the invite to those listed below and amend the agenda.

Looking forward to meeting,
Julie

Good afternoon Julie,

Hope you had a lovely weekend.

Thank you for sending through the agenda. Unfortunately we have another meeting scheduled at 3.15pm so we can run a few minutes late but will struggle to fit in another 30min. Happy to follow up with video conferences if need be.

Also, it might be worth clarifying in the agenda that under TikTok 101 we will run through an overview of our platform as well as our content moderation system (this was the 'technical' component I was referring to over the phone). As I mentioned on Friday, I have invited our Trust and Safety colleagues to cover these topics but we will try to answer any other questions that are put forward/take them on notice.

Please see our list of attendees below:

In-person:

Morning [REDACTED],

Please see below for proposed agenda for our meeting on Friday. Please let me know if you would like any additions or amendments at this time.

Looking at the length of the agenda and given you have committed to travel for this meeting, would you be open to extending the length to 1.5hrs? This should allow us to get into some more conversation up front. If required, we will then be able to follow up with some additional video conference time.

Happy to discuss,

Julie
