Nomination of a Member of the House of Representatives

Information on this form is collected under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918

This form must be accompanied by one of the Nomination of a Member of the House of Representatives 60a to 60c.

Notes to assist completion

Where the candidate is a part of a bulk nomination the numbers in the boxes:

Candidate

should correspond with Part B - Candidates being nominated in the form 60a.

Question 2 – Form in which given name(s) to appear on ballot paper

A given name for use on the ballot paper must be the candidate's name and may be:

- an initial standing for that name, or
- a commonly accepted variation of that name (including an abbreviation, truncation or alternative form of that name).

Question 3

In accordance with the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 candidates' place of residence is stated and displayed at the declaration of nominations, which takes place 24 hours after nominations close, unless they are enrolled as a silent elector.

Candidates other than those with silent enrolment must show their residential address and indicate whether they authorise the AEC to otherwise release this address to the public.

Question 4

If a postal address is provided, candidates should indicate whether they authorise the AEC to release the postal address to the public.

Question 5

The AEC may need to contact candidates or their representatives regarding their candidacy. Please provide sufficient contact details to provide a clear communication channel. Candidates should indicate which, if any, contact details are to be made public.

Question 6

Occupation must be stated. Members of the House of Representatives standing for re-election are entitled to show their occupation as Member of Parliament. Please also provide gender.

Question 7

Candidates endorsed by registered political parties should provide the party name (either in the abbreviated form or full party name). These details will appear on the ballot paper under the candidate name.

Candidates nominated by 100 electors can elect to have the word Independent shown under their name on the ballot paper.

Candidate information on AEC website

After the declaration of nominations, the AEC publishes candidate information to its website. This includes name, occupation and any address and contact details candidates have agreed on this form to make publicly available.

Candidate statement and declaration

Please read the candidate statement and declaration carefully before signing the nomination form.

Your attention is drawn in particular to section 44 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia:

Any person who:

- is under any acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to a foreign power, or is a subject or a citizen or entitled to the rights or privileges of a subject or a citizen of a foreign power; or
- is attainted of treason, or has been convicted and is under sentence, or subject to be sentenced, for any offence punishable under the law of the Commonwealth or of a State by imprisonment for one year or longer; or
- is an undischarged bankrupt or insolvent; or
- holds any office of profit under the Crown, or any pension payable during the pleasure of the Crown out of any of the revenues of the Commonwealth; or
- has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any agreement with the Public Service of the Commonwealth otherwise than as a member and in common with the other members of an incorporated company consisting of more than twenty-five persons;

shall be incapable of being chosen or of sitting as a Senator or a member of the House of Representatives.

But subsection (iv) does not apply to the office of any of the Queen's Ministers of State for the Commonwealth, or of any of the Queen's Ministers for a State, or to the receipt of pay, half pay, or a pension, by any person as an officer or member of the Queen's navy or army, or to the receipt of pay as an officer or member of the naval or military forces of the Commonwealth by any person whose services are not wholly employed by the Commonwealth.

Candidates who have any doubts about their eligibility, by virtue of section 44 of the Constitution, are advised to obtain their own legal advice.

For further information refer to the Candidates Handbook and the Nomination Guide.

*Answering 'Yes' to the question about eligibility under section 44 of the Constitution asserts eligibility.

A nomination form which has not been signed by the candidate cannot be accepted.

This form cannot be submitted until after the writ for the election has been issued.

Appointment of Candidate Agent

Candidates have the option of appointing an Agent to act on their behalf under the election funding and financial disclosure provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918. If you choose to appoint an Agent you should complete an Appointment of Candidate Agent form and lodge it with the AEC before the close of nominations.
