

Nomination of a Member of the House of Representatives

Single nomination – endorsed candidate

This form should be used where an individual candidate for the House of Representatives is endorsed by a registered political party and nominated by the Registered Officer of the political party.

A registered officer of a registered political party may not nominate more than one candidate as an endorsed candidate for a single Division in any State or Territory.

Additional information is available in the Candidates Handbook and the Nomination Guide.

Information on this form is collected under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (CEA).

The nomination form will be publicly produced at the time of the declaration of nominations, which takes place 24 hours after nominations close, and may be inspected at any time following the declaration of nominations by members of the public in accordance with the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

No responsibility will be taken for faxed nominations and no acknowledgement of receipt of faxes will be advised. The form may be sent by fax to the relevant Divisional Returning Officer (DRO). No other kind of electronic communication will be accepted. The time of receipt for faxed forms is the time when the message enters the relevant Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) fax machine memory and it is agreed that the AEC is not responsible for any deadlines missed or losses incurred. The deposit cannot be lodged electronically, and it is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that both the fax and the required deposit are received by the DRO before the close of nominations.

If a Registered Officer or a Deputy Registered Officer nominates a party's endorsed candidates for the House of Representatives to the Australian Electoral Officer (AEO), no nomination of any other candidates endorsed by that party should be made to a DRO within that State or Territory. If a nomination for another candidate endorsed by the same party is lodged with a DRO all the party's nominations made to the AEO under section 167(3) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 will be rejected (section 172 CEA).

If your party has a logo entered in the Register of Political Parties at the time of nomination, you may request to have that logo printed adjacent to the candidate's name on the ballot paper.
