Thanks Alex – the following is an early draft response that we may look at sending back at 3.30pm today:

“Other than confirming the AEC has engaged with Facebook, which is public knowledge, the AEC does not publicly comment on the progress of active investigations.”

Will discuss with my ELT colleagues and confirm in due course.

Good afternoon.

The AEC last week revealed in would investigated LNP Bowman MP Andrew Laming for potential breaches of electoral laws over more than 30 Facebook pages he allegedly operated with electoral authorization.

- 1) Could the AEC provide an update on the investigation?
- 2) Particularly its findings if the investigation has concluded?
- 3) Or if it is ongoing, when the AEC expects the investigation to conclude?
- 4) In order to look into this issue, who will or has the AEC approached?
- 5) Generally, what are the consequences of breaching electoral law in this way?

Thank you. Hoping for a response by 3.30pm please.

Cheers,
