Thanks Louise, and congrats on the promotion (I think? Apologies, I feel like I've missed a month here)

Going through s 47F but from the Higgins/desk video case headlines they do appear to be amenable to these kinds of requests.

Thanks and kind regards,

Thanks for all of these suggestions Alex. I've copied in Meg (the new Electoral Authorisations & Fraud Investigations Director) as she is in later today and she might have ideas on how to take this further.

We need to decide on the best approach for serving the notices on both s 47F and Dr Laming.

Oh! It also just occurred to me that since the <sup>s 47F</sup> they might be amenable to assisting in the investigation?

Hi all,

Apologies for resurrecting an old email thread but I'm going through my unread emails and this popped up.

<sup>s 47F</sup>

The reason I know this is due to the Aussie Parl&Gov WikiEdits Twitter bot, which automatically posts every time an IP address flagged as an APS agency edits a Wikipedia page. <sup>s 47F</sup>

Hi Louise,

Thank you for the email and the update on the investigation.

With the limited information presented to us, I agree that would be my assumption regarding the log-in and log-out details.

If you would like to look further at the IP address information for any specific instance, you could use a basic website such as <https://www.home.neustar/resources/tools/ip-geolocation-lookup-tool> or <https://www.iplocation.net/ip-lookup> which will provide location data amongst other information for each address. s 37(1)(a)

Hi Julie

As discussed, I'd be interested in your expert opinion about what the 'log in' and 'log out' details mean in the attached - I assume it would be log ins/out to Facebook generally and not to a particular page. In any case, they don't seem to go back far enough for the current investigation. For an investigation that is less historical, the lack of log ins/outs may be the only thing that is determinative...

Also, as discussed, I'll test out the "download your information" function over the weekend.

Kind regards

Louise
