Hi Meg,

Writing to confirm the remaining video has also been removed. Direct notification regarding all 3 videos was also sent from the Legal Removals team earlier this morning, which hopefully, you received.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch if there's anything further we can assist with.

Kind regards,

To our colleagues at Google (& Youtube),

As per the Australian Electoral Commission internal policy, I am writing to confirm that I have submitted a 'Government authorities requesting content removal from YouTube' in relation to the three videos posted [REDACTED]. The complaint reference is NFK2XPPIEOMDB3R4BSRHCM4FHI.

The three videos posted on s 47F channel contain electoral matter and are unauthorised, in breach of s 321D(5) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

Each video contains electoral matter, that is, material communicated for the dominant purpose of influencing the way electors vote in an election (s 4AA of the Electoral Act. The videos depict candidate s 47F of the s 47F encouraging electors to vote for 'freedom-friendly parties', including s 47F. The videos are unauthorised.

Please reach out if you require anything further.
