With regards to the agenda - I will give an update on TikTok's election preparedness work and support from the AEC so far (Election Guide, PSA's etc.). It'd also be useful if AEC could give any updates/or information regarding potential threats/risks to the Election which we can consider for our own preparation.

May end up only being a 30 min meeting, but it's good to have a bit of extra time at the end in case we need it!

Kind regards

Just following up with a draft agenda for our meeting next week. If you could please send through a list of the TikTok attendees, that would be great.

Please feel free to let me know of any items you would like added to the agenda!

Hi Julie,

It certainly is something that I have missed!

Understood - we may have Singapore based staff joining us but it might be ok given the advance notice. Let me check with them and I'll get back to you Friday/Monday.

Kind regards

Thanks s 47F, appreciate you making those changes.

Overseas travel - What a fantastic novelty at this point!

Of course happy to work with the availability of the team, I'm conscious that we may have an election announcement by that week, and we will do our very best from this side to keep our appointments!

Looking at week commencing 4 April, are we just working with Aus based staff? If so, can I suggest 11am on Tuesday 5 April, for an hour via Teams?

Cheers

Julie

Hi Julie,

All actioned - yes we are certainly open to having another prep meeting prior to the election.

Could we aim for first week April instead? My team will be overseas for a week at the end of March so it might be tricky for us then.

Kind regards

Hi s 47F

Thanks for checking in on this.

Can we please amend as follows:

- Remove my email address
- Add authorisationsection@aec.gov.au
- Add socialmedia@aec.gov.au

Those referrals coming from our Authorisations team will be the legal ones, and those from Social Media team more likely those against your Terms of Use.

Would actually be great for us as AEC to catch up with you once more before the election is announced? (let's say this month?) Just to run through everything and make sure we're all sorted.

Cheers

Hi Julie,

Hope you are well.

I was going through our whitelist for Australian Government agencies using our dedicated reporting channels and noticed we only have two email addresses registered for the AEC:

- eiata@aec.gov.au
- Your email

We discussed this almost a year ago now so I just wanted to make sure the AEC didn't have any other email addresses/teams that would likely be sending TikTok escalations. We will still respond to all escalations in our govreport inbox but it helps us address the issue more quickly if we already have confirmation as to who is sending the request.

Kind regards
