Subject: Reporting an Unauthorised Facebook and Twitter Page (Outrage Institute)

Dear [REDACTED] 47F

We are writing to notify you of our concerns that the Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/OutrageInstituteAustralia/> and its accompanying twitter page <https://twitter.com/outrageinst> are not authorised and each platform is being used to disseminate opinions on electoral matters.

The nature of the content strongly indicates that the website originated from the Liberal Party, or from people with connections to the Liberal Party. We are deeply concerned as to why the authorising party is not stated, as required by law.

We have also observed that the tweets are appearing as “promoted” advertisements, meaning that they are being paid for. Attached are copies of sponsored (“promoted”) content.

If you prefer that I forward these concerns elsewhere, please provide the details of that contact.

I look forward to hearing from you concerning actions the AEC will take concerning these matters.
Yours sincerely,

47F

Subject: Reporting an Unauthorised Website and Facebook Page (www.riteon.org.au)

Dear 47F

We are writing to notify you of our concerns that the website <https://www.riteon.org.au/> and its accompanying Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/RiteOnAU>, its twitter page <https://twitter.com/RiteOnAU> and instagram page <https://www.instagram.com/RiteOnAU/> are not authorised. All platforms are being used to disseminate opinions on electoral matters. The nature of the content strongly indicates that the website originated from the Liberal Party, or from people with connections to the Liberal Party. We are deeply concerned as to why the authorising party is not stated, as we have interpreted the law to require them to be.

The only identifiable information from the website is that of a mobile telephone listed as: 47F I look forward to hearing from you.
Yours sincerely,

47F
