Subject: AEC Engagement for proposed Referendum [SEC=OFFICIAL]

Categories: s 47F

Hi s 47F,

I've recently joined s 47F team here at the AEC and I'll be working closely with yourselves and other social media platforms in the lead up to the proposed referendum currently being considered by Government.

Given it could take place in the second half of this year, the AEC are interested in scheduling an initial meeting between TikTok and some of our AEC teams – namely ourselves in the Defending Democracy Unit, Media and Digital Engagement, Communications and our Legal Services Branch – to highlight the change in scope between the recent federal election and the proposed referendum.

I've provided a few proposed meeting times below that work for our teams;

- Tuesday 14 February: anytime between 14:00-16:00
- Thursday 16 February: anytime between 14:00-16:00

If you could advise, if any of these windows suit yourselves and/or other TikTok representatives, I'll make arrangements for a Microsoft Teams meeting. Of course, very glad to discuss alternative times if the above options don't suits.

Should you happen to be in Canberra and available, you would of course be welcome to join us here at the National Office for the meeting.

A proposed agenda will follow – but happy to work with you on any specific items you may wish to raise.

As you'll no doubt recall, TikTok and the AEC enjoyed productive collaboration during the recent federal election and we appreciate the opportunity to confirm our continued engagement for this proposed referendum event.

Kind regards,
