Many thanks s 47F, appreciate your responsiveness noting we are presuming this comment is in relation to the changes to secure telephone voting eligibility.

Hi s 47F

Hope all is going well (as can be) today.

Just thought I would let you know that yesterday we took note of the rule change regarding postal voting and have updated and applied our electoral misinformation policy accordingly.

We have taken appropriate action on content that promoted now out-of-date information on the election and voting rules.

Best of luck!
