AEC s 47F gave the following AEC update:

Nil

N/A

Postal Vote Applications (PVAs)

- Yesterday, Thursday 6 May 2022, the AEC received almost 40k PVAs.
- The AEC has received over 2 million PVAs. However, only 1.98 million of these are active PVAs, with the remainder being rejected for reasons including being duplicate, incomplete or incorrect applications.
- 97K completed postal votes were returned to the AEC yesterday, 5 May 2022.
- A total of 302k completed postal votes have now been returned, with declaration envelopes undergoing preliminary scrutiny.

Pre-poll Voting Centres and Secure Telephone Voting

- Pre-poll voting centres are mostly finalised, with 1326 sites ready to commence operation on 9 May 2022.
 - The blind and low vision telephone voting system will also be commencing on Monday 9 May 2022.
 - This is the same system and platform as the COVID secure telephone voting system, use of which will allow for early and low-volume final evaluations of the system.
 - Based on current COVID case numbers and Public Health Orders, 23 secure telephone voting call centres will be available.

Temporary election workforce

- Of the approximately 115k temporary election workforce positions required, 87.5k have now been confirmed.
- Just over 900 pre-polling positions remain unfilled.

Other

- The Command Centre is monitoring weather forecasts to manage the possibility for flooding and how this may affect pre-polling and polling availability in certain areas.
