

Application for registration of a non-Parliamentary party

AEC

Australian Electoral Commission

Completing this form:

- This application is for use by political parties who have no members in the federal Parliament and wish to register a political party to contest elections for the Senate and/or House of Representatives. A registered political party can have its registered party name, registered abbreviation or registered logo printed on the ballot papers next to the name of its endorsed candidates.
- Further information is provided in the Party Registration Guide available at www.aec.gov.au.
- This form is to be completed with reference to the Party Registration Guide.
- Information on this form is collected under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.
- The application is a public document during the registration process. After that, the public information is restricted to the party name, abbreviation, registered logo, postal address, website, election funding choice and the name and address of the registered officer.
- A new party with a member in the Senate or House of Representatives should use the form—Application for registration by a Parliamentary party.
- If you wish to register a political party to contest State or Territory elections, please contact your local State or Territory electoral commission.

Note: If seeking approval for a party logo, it must be submitted in the correct format detailed in the Commonwealth Electoral (Logo Requirements) Determination 2016 by email to fad@aec.gov.au.
