Dear 1

My name is 1 from the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) in Canberra. I'm emailing you today as the AEC have received an application to register Stop Selling Australia as a federal political party. Under section 123 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 a registered political party must have at least 500 members who are on the Commonwealth Electoral Roll.

To verify a party's membership list, the AEC checks a random sample of the membership list provided by the party.

Stop Selling Australia provided your name on its membership list and your name has been selected at random. To verify that you are a member of the party, please reply to this email with the response that applies to you:

1. My name is[your name here].....
 "I am a member of Stop Selling Australia"

OR, if you are not a member of the party

2. My name is[your name here].....

"No, I am not a member of Stop Selling Australia"

You can also contact me directly on 7 to confirm whether you are a member of the party.

It is important that you respond to this email as a certain number of members must confirm their membership of the party for the application to be successful.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any queries.

Kind Regards

Under section 123 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 a registered political party must have at least 500 members who are on the Commonwealth Electoral Roll.

To verify a party's membership list, the AEC checks a random sample of the membership list provided by the party.

Stop Selling Australia provided your name on its membership list and your name has been selected at random. To verify that you are a member of the party, please reply to this email with the response that applies to you:

1. My name is[your name here].....
 "I am a member of Stop Selling Australia"

OR, if you are not a member of the party

2. My name is[your name here].....

"No, I am not a member of Stop Selling Australia"

You can also contact me directly on 7 to confirm whether you are a member of the party.

It is important that you respond to this email as a certain number of members must confirm their membership of the party for the application to be successful.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any queries.

Kind Regards

Under section 123 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 a registered political party must have at least 500 members who are on the Commonwealth Electoral Roll.

To verify a party's membership list, the AEC checks a random sample of the membership list provided by the party.

Stop Selling Australia provided your name on its membership list and your name has been selected at random. To verify that you are a member of the party, please reply to this email with the response that applies to you:

1. My name is[your name here].....
 "I am a member of Stop Selling Australia"

OR, if you are not a member of the party

2. My name is[your name here].....

"No, I am not a member of Stop Selling Australia"

You can also contact me directly on [REDACTED] to confirm whether you are a member of the party.

It is important that you respond to this email as a certain number of members must confirm their membership of the party for the application to be successful.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any queries.

Dear [REDACTED]

My name is [REDACTED] from the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) in Canberra. I'm emailing you today as the AEC have received an application to register Stop Selling Australia as a federal political party. Under section 123 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 a registered political party must have at least 500 members who are on the Commonwealth Electoral Roll.

To verify a party's membership list, the AEC checks a random sample of the membership list provided by the party.

Stop Selling Australia provided your name on its membership list and your name has been selected at random. To verify that you are a member of the party, please reply to this email with the response that applies to you:

1. My name is[your name here].....
 "I am a member of Stop Selling Australia"

OR, if you are not a member of the party

2. My name is[your name here].....

"No, I am not a member of Stop Selling Australia"

You can also contact me directly on [REDACTED] to confirm whether you are a member of the party.

It is important that you respond to this email as a certain number of members must confirm their membership of the party for the application to be successful.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any queries.

Kind Regards
